

DESCENDANTS OF EDWARD BURWELL

Conjecture that Elizabeth Burwell Vaulx is the actual mother of Edward Vaulx Garland is based on circumstantial evidence and may only be proved by DNA testing. However, it is a privilege to introduce Edward Burwell to Covey Trees. He appears as a Subscriber on an original document in the Library of Congress <http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mss/mtj.mtjbib026594> entitled "Virginia Records Manuscripts 1606-1737, VA Company of London and the Colony, 1606-92, Miscellaneous Papers - A Patent for the Enlargement and Expansion of the Priviledges and Liberties of the First Colony and Plantation of Virginia", May 23, 1609. (pgs. 40-59). Burwell appears on page 44. "Genesis of the United States" by Alexander Brown (pub. 1890) demonstrates how the VA Company of London and the Colony is technically the actual documented owner of nearly all of the U.S. Elizabeth Burwell shared the pioneering spirit of her parents and lived it with great passion, even after the Vaulx marriage disintegrated with Robert Vaulx permanently returning to England, after extended absences from home in York Co., VA. Although a private divorce was likely, Elizabeth retained the Vaulx name.
